MEHARRY NOTES.

At the concert given by the Y. M. C. A. last Friday evening the audience was pleasantly entertained. The programme consisted of solos, recitations and quartettes, supplemented by selections by the Walden orchestra. While the entire programme was interesting, one of the pieces which attracted special attention was the bass solo of Mr. E. W. Miller. The solos by Misses Davis and Lewis were equally entertaining. Miss Maggie L. Tiller demonstrated beyond a reasonable doubt that she is entitled to a seat in the uppermost ranks. Mr. A. N. Johnson was at ease in the rendition of Poe's "The Raven." "Carve that Possum true," by the Meharry quartette will linger long in the minds of those who heard it.

Miss Mary Irene Brown was awarded the prize, a season ticket to all the football games played by the Meharry team, for having sold the highest number of tickets. She sold 50 tickets.

Mr. W. A. Holmes, Vice President of the Y. M. C. A. and a delegate to the International Convention, which convenes at Washington, D. C., November 22-25, left last Monday night. F. B. Ransom, from the Literary Department, left Tuesday to attend the convention.

Mr. Pickens, assistant Secretary of the Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, lectured to the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday. He spoke with forceful emphasis upon the "Importance of Individual Evolution as a Preliminary Prerequisite to the Evolution of a Race."

CARNATION CLUB.

Mrs. P. A. Washington entertained the Carnation Club at her beautiful residence, 44 Robertson street, Monday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mesdames Lawrence Moore and Pleas Perkins. At 5 o'clock the guests were invited into the dining-room, where a three-course luncheon with ices was served. The table was handsomely decorated, having a centerpiece of cluny lace with stand of red carnations and a watermelon. The club guests were, Mesdames P. R. Burrus, H. A. Dodd, I. E. Nicholson, Harris Bosworth, E. Bell and Miss N. M. Gaither. Club members: Mesdames P. A. Washington, H. M. Burns, Geo. W. Ward, Robt. Ralph, P. A. Simms, Hal Duff, C. C. Winstead, J. C. Woods, L. E. Battle, Sidney Bond, W. S. Amos, James Coffee, Lawrence Moore, W. M. Stephenson. The club will meet with Mrs. A. H. Battle Deluge street, next Monday afternoon.

THE DAY HOME.

The F. D. L. A. Club has taken the lead in lending a helping hand to the Day Home Club. This Club pays $1.25 each month for the care of one child at the home.

The ladies of the Day Home Club wish to express through Mrs. Townsend, the promoter of this movement of the F. D. L. A., their hearty appreciation for the same, and will be thankful if other clubs will take on the missionary spirit and help the Home in any way they desire. Fuel, food and shelter are great items now, so don't forget the little ones who so much need the public's care and attention. If all the social clubs organized for the social enjoyment of its members would just stop and think how much good they can do and how much their assistance is needed, they will surely feel better to know they have organized and lived to make others happier and better. A little assistance regularly each month from the different organizations would soon enable the Home to make a creditable showing and it would be an institution of which the colored race would be proud. Friends, come and help us. Give your donations to any of the Day Home Club members. It will be thankfully received.

The home is on Cherry street, near the corner of Highland. Give the home a call. You will be welcome. Come and see the needs, and tell others about the "Day Home."

FLEUR-DE-LIS ART CLUB.

Mrs. Henry A. Cameron was at home to the Fleur-de-Lis Art Club Thursday, November 14. The club has been organized seven years and not one time during those seven years not a meeting has been more fully or profitably spent. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Anna Jackson and both ladies did not fail to greet each comer with a cheery welcome. An effort is being made to have every member attend each meeting and each one is urged to be on time, that all may accomplish the same good and all alike be benefited. There were several guests in attendance at the last meeting. The visitors were Mrs. C. E. Lewis, Mrs. G. A. Washington, her little son, Alvin, Miss Lynch, of Salisbury, N. C., and Mrs. Shaw, of Knoxville, N. C. The last two ladies were representatives of the W. C. T. U. Both made speeches of great interest to the club. A letter was read from the Confederation of Ladies' Clubs desiring the F. D. L. A. to unite with that body. This is the second or third appeal that has been made recently, and action will be taken at the next meeting upon the subject whether or not the F. D. L. A. will join the "Confederation" of Ladies' Clubs. Mrs. Baker read an interesting paper on the "Twentieth Century Woman," which was listened to attentively and highly enjoyed. Mrs. Townsend's instrumental solo was loudly applauded. On account of Thanksgiving Day occurring on the regular club date, there will be no meeting till the first Thursday in December. It was further decided that the remaining club days shall be the first and third Thursdays in each month instead of the second and fourth.

At this time the hostess welcomed the ladies into the dining-room and a lovely collation of three courses was served. The Journalist announced the following program for the next meeting:

Solo—Mrs. D. A. Hart.
Paper—The Latest Books: Who Wrote Them: An Opinion of Each—by Mrs. A. G. Price.

An Extract—by Mrs. S. P. Harris.
After a social chat with the guests of honor all dispersed, bidding goodbye with a hope of meeting again December 5, at the residence of Mrs. Sutton E. Griggs, 612 Webster street, 3 p. m.

WILL MARRY IN NEW YORK.

An invitation has just been received by the Globe Publishing Company from Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Swann, of New York City, N. Y., announcing the marriage of their daughter, Annie Prentiss Bishop Swann, to Dr. James Julian Trimble. The ceremony is to take place on Wednesday evening, November 27, 1907, at 8 o'clock in the St. Phillips Protestant Episcopal Church. The news of the approaching nuptials preceded the invitation, but as "Madam Gossip" is always busy, Nashville preferred waiting for the official notice. The bride-to-be is not known in this city, but the groom is the son of Mr. James G. Trimble, Sr., one of our oldest and most respected citizens, who is at present in New York. The latter served for twenty-two years as a member of the Nashville Fire Department.

Dr. Trimble is a graduate of the Nashville city high school, also Fisk University, but finished his professional course at Harvard.

FOURTH QUARTERLY MEETING.

The missionary and Educational Union will hold its fourth and last quarterly meeting this year Friday, December 6, at the Stonewall Street Baptist Church at 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. Much attention has been given to the educational work this year. Remember the missionary work must grow and we must help to carry it forward. Our dear Bro. Lawrence, Superintendent of Missions has been working faithfully to keep up this part of the work in this State, but he cannot keep it up alone. Our Foreign Mission Board is struggling, our Home Mission Board is struggling, and we must help them. If but little, to encourage these faithful workers. Much attention has been given to our beloved school, Roger Williams, but remember we have two other struggling schools in this state asking for help. They are ours and we must not turn our backs upon them. Let each missionary society and every church give at least one dollar on that day and much more if you can. We want to close the year praising God for having done more this year than we did last year. We appeal to the pastors to help the women who have labored with you. Raise this one dollar and represent at Stonewall Street Baptist Church the first Friday in December.

Rally.

The Union will also have a rally the second Sunday in December in the New Roger Williams Hall. The money to be appropriated in helping to furnish the building preparatory to opening the first of January. Do come and help us raise one hundred dollars that day. Each church and Missionary Society is asked to give five dollars, more if possible, less if you can't get that. Christian friends, do help us, for this is very much needed. Arrangements will be made to convey you from the cars to the building as before, and you will be comfortably seated in the hall. Come and help.

C. E. DICKERSON Secretary.
M. H. FLOWERS, President.

ILLNESS OF MRS. TATE.

Mrs. W. O. Tate, of Eighth avenue, North, one of the faithful promoters of the Day Home project, is confined to her room suffering from an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism. It will be remembered that several years ago Mrs. Tate recovered from a very serious and protracted attack of this dreaded malady only through the best medical attention, for a while her chances for recovery being very precarious.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of Howard Congregational Church, met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. N. J. Anderson, of 181 Fourteenth avenue, North. A full attendance of members was present. The new pastor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Innes, met with the society. After a short business session, refreshments were served. New members enrolled were Mrs. Innes, Mrs. A. N. Johnson and Mrs. Hardy Keith. This society aims to assist in supplying the material needs of the church, also to aid in developing the social side of church work. The officers are Mrs. P. R. Burrus, President; Miss Lena Jackson, Secretary; Mrs. R. S. White, Treasurer. The Society will meet Friday, November 29, with Miss Lena Jackson, of Thirteenth avenue, North.
